

The Weather.
Forecast for Tuesday and Wednesday:
Kentucky—Fair Tuesday, preceded by showers in east portion; Wednesday fair and warmer.

Indiana—Fair and warmer Tuesday; Wednesday fair; fresh northwest winds.
Tennessee—Fair Tuesday, preceded by showers in east portion; Wednesday fair and warmer.

The Weather Bureau has issued the following general forecast for the week:
During the next seven days temperature will be about or somewhat above the seasonal average generally over the interior and eastern portions of the country. In the Ohio and upper Mississippi valleys and the lake region the rains of to-night will be followed Tuesday by clearing and the next rain period will come about Thursday night or Friday and continue about twenty-four hours. Over the Southern States the weather on the whole promises to be settled and fair.

THE LATEST.

The reappointment of Maj. A. T. Wood as Pension Agent and the withdrawal of Walker Wilkins made decided changes in the aspect of the scramble for the surveyorship of the Port of Louisville, and it now looks like the office will go to Jim Frank Taylor, of Glasgow. William Henry Jones is slated to succeed Taylor as postmaster.

MOST ANSWER BEFORE JURY

Parrish and Anderson Arrested at Owensboro.

Presidents of Banks Which Recently Went Under.

Revelations of Receivers Cause Issue of Warrants.

HELD UNDER $15,000 BONDS.

Owensboro, Ky., May 18.—[Special.]—James H. Parrish, president of the Owensboro Savings Bank and Trust Company and T. S. Anderson, president of the Owensboro Clearinghouse Bank, were arrested to-day as a result of the disclosures following the recent failures of the two institutions. Both men waived examination and were held under bonds of $15,000 each to await the action of the grand jury.

Thirty-one years ago James H. Parrish began work as a clerk in the bank owned at that time by T. S. Anderson. He learned the banking business from Mr. Anderson. His advancement was rapid. In 1884 he purchased the bank from Mr. Anderson. The latter moved to Detroit, Mich. and opened a bank.

The rise of James H. Parrish in the financial world was phenomenal. A few months ago his bank had a capital stock of $300,000 and deposits of over $1,000,000. Mr. Anderson quit the banking business in Detroit a few years ago and returned to Owensboro and opened another bank. He, too, a few weeks ago, had deposits of $640,000.

To-night, James H. Parrish, president and largest stockholder of the Owensboro Savings Bank and Trust Company, and T. S. Anderson, president of the Owensboro Clearinghouse Bank and Trust Company, the teacher and the pupil, are both under bond of $15,000 to appear before the August dayless county grand jury.

Two Charges Against Each.

Anderson was arrested on two warrants. One charges him with fraudulently converting to his own use $30,000 of the funds of the bank. The other warrants charges him with receiving deposits when he knew his bank to be insolvent.

Parrish was also arrested on two warrants, both charging him with receiving deposits when he knew his bank to be insolvent. The arrest of Parrish and Anderson did not come as a surprise to the citizens of Owensboro. However, it created one of the most profound sensations in the history of the county.

On April 24, a motion was made for a receiver for the savings bank. T. A. Pedley was appointed and immediately took possession of the bank. Several weeks of financial distress by the bank, during which time the officers made every effort to keep the doors open. But so much of the paper of the bank had been rediscounted that little paper of value was left that could be realized upon. The city's most prominent business men went to the aid of the bank during its last days, and personally loaned the institution $20,000. Pedley assured that this would tide the institution over. But it was like pouring money into a leaky bucket.

Mr. Anderson had religious scruples against employing a watchman for his bank on Sunday nights. His directors objected to this. Neither bank has ever received a dollar in his bank. Mr. Anderson is an elder in the First Presbyterian church, and has always been regarded as one of the leading church men of Owensboro.

Careworn and dejected Mr. Anderson stood in the County Judge's office this afternoon, not speaking to anyone. Bland and smiling, Mr. Parrish walked about the room chatting with his friends and humming a hymn. Mr. Parrish announced he would fight the charges.

Neither the Owensboro Savings Bank nor the Owensboro Clearinghouse Bank was a member of the Owensboro Clearinghouse Association. The other banks in Owensboro, by their statements, are shown to be in the best of condition, and not the slightest uneasiness is felt in the banking circles.

MEETING OF ST. JOSEPH SOCIETY AT AN END.
Organization of German Catholic Societies Brings Convention to a Close By Electing Officers.

Evansville, Ind., May 18.—[Special.]—The State convention of the St. Joseph Society, held at Evansville, Ind., the German Catholic societies of the State, which met here yesterday, came to a close this afternoon after selecting Richard J. Ind, as the new place of meeting.

The following officers were selected: President, John S. Jones, of Evansville; first vice president, George Maier, of Richmond; second vice president, John M. TO ARRANGE FOR STATE CONVENTION

DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETS TO-DAY.

LEXINGTON MAKING A HARD FIGHT FOR GATHERING.

TO BE INVITED TO LOUISVILLE.

Frankfort, Ky., May 18.—[Special.]—The Democratic State Executive Committee will meet here to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock to select the time and place for holding the Democratic State Convention and also to select the delegates to the convention. Judge W. A. Lee, of Owens county, is the only member of the committee now in the city. It is certain in view of the importance of the meeting that full membership will be secured.

HER LETTERS CHEERED HIM

Wrote Aged Senator Platt To Mae C. Wood.

Was "Almost Reconciled To Odell's Election."

Plaintiff Tells In Court of Alleged Marriage.

FORCED TO SIGN RECEIPT.

New York, May 18.—Mae Catherine Wood was on the witness stand all day today testifying in her suit for absolute divorce from United States Senator Thomas C. Platt, before Justice O'Gorman in the Supreme Court. In support of her assertion that she had been secretly married to Senator Platt at the Fifth-avenue Hotel on November 9, 1901, her counsel introduced in evidence a marriage certificate which, she said, had been handed her by the minister who performed the ceremony; and copies of a number of letters alleged to have been written to her by the Senator addressed in terms of endearment. On cross-examination Miss Wood told the jury that she had seen the papers and letters she possessed relating to Senator Platt, alleging that she had been married to him, and that she had signed a receipt for $10,000 in settlement of all her claims against the Senator. Senator Platt was not in court to-day.

Affectionate Letters.
At the opening of court Miss Wood identified copies of several letters which she said were received by her from Platt. They were mainly of an affectionate nature, but in several there were interesting sentences on other affairs. In one communication was the following:

"Your letter has cheered me up so that I am almost reconciled to Odell's election."

A picture of the Senator was shown, upon the back of which was written:

"Telling how this was written, Miss Wood said:

"Well, I was sitting on my lap. Part of the time I held his hand. We wrote it together. The words, 'little wife' were written by me."

Miss Wood said that the Senator came to her room in her hotel with letters and that she had never known her as his wife before these two men.

She named as co-respondent in her suit Mrs. Lillian Janeway, who was married to the Senator in 1903. In his answer to the complaint the Senator alleged that he had married Mrs. Janeway, but that he had married her about November 9, 1901. In New York, he is absolutely false.

The more intricate incident of the day was the testimony of Miss Wood to the fact that she was married to the Senator in 1901. She said that she was married to the Senator in 1901. She said that she was married to the Senator in 1901. She said that she was married to the Senator in 1901.

He charged that since 1906 Miss Wood had tried to get money from him by threats that she would sue him for breach of promise of marriage.

Miss Wood testified that Mr. Platt first promised to marry her at Manhattan Beach.

He said the marriage must be secret as he was an old man," added the witness. "I demurred and told him that he knew nothing about me, but he said he knew all my past life."

"I Am An Old Fool."
Miss Wood said she had two letters from Senator Platt, but that one of them was demanded from her by J. Martin Miller and another man in the next room. She said she never seen it since. Her counsel showed the witness a typewritten copy of a letter which she said she had received from Senator Platt. It was offered in evidence and admitted.

The witness said she was called to the stand by the counsel of John B. Scandfield, Senator Platt's counsel. The copy was dated Friday, November 8, 1901.

"My little bride-to-be: I have made all my arrangements. You are not to say anything to anyone. I enclose card of instructions implicitly. I enclose card of instructions implicitly. I enclose card of instructions implicitly."

corrected, and has been a newspaper reporter, a school teacher, a lawyer, and a writer. She did newspaper work in Omaha and also was admitted to the bar in New York. She has since the Senator to speak to him on August 18, 1903.

"Old Janeway."
Counsel for Senator Platt produced letters alleged to have been written to Miss Wood by the Senator. In one of these letters the Senator asked Miss Wood why she does not marry "Mr. Middleton," and says he would like to see her marry before he dies.

On another letter the Senator took Miss Wood to task for writing about "Old Janeway," told her that he knew all about Mrs. Janeway, and that she was a large, fat, middle-aged woman, and concluded: "I have no intention of marrying Mrs. Janeway or any other woman."

Miss Wood denied that she ever received O'Flaherty & Fulton, of Richmond, Va., to present a case against Senator Platt, but said she had met them and talked about the case. Thereupon Senator Platt's counsel read a letter from the lawyer to the Senator in which they declared that they had been employed by Miss Wood relative to a claim against the Senator.

"The matter grows out of a promise of marriage made by you to her and broken," said the counsel. "You have married another person," says the letter. The defense also submitted a copy of a legal petition in the District Court of Douglas county, Nebraska, filed by "Mae C. Wood vs. Robert J. Wynne, William Loeb and J. Martin Miller, defendants."

On that occasion Miss Wood sought to recover $35,000 from the defendants. She said that she had been married to the Senator in 1901, and that she had been married to the Senator in 1901. She said that she had been married to the Senator in 1901.

MERGER OF ALL INTERURBANS

Forecast In Combination Just Now Effectuated.

The Louisville and Northern Joins Louisville and Eastern.

First Step In Extensive Consolidation Plans.

INSULL-MAYO COMBINATION.

A deal which paves the way for a gigantic consolidation of all the interurban lines now entering Louisville, and the absorption of the suburbs of the Louisville and Eastern, has been consummated. Within the next few days a new interurban company, to be known as the Louisville, Frankfort and Eastern Traction Company, will be organized for the purpose of absorbing the Louisville and Eastern and completing that road through Shelbyville, Frankfort, Lawrenceburg, Eminence, and New Castle.

Samuel Insull, of Chicago, who is at the head of the interurban lines, and the Southern Indiana Traction Company, the Louisville and Northern Traction Company, and the New Albany City Railway Company, will be elected president of the new company. The other large interests which figure in the new road are those owned by John C. Mayo, who has control of the Indianapolis and Louisville Traction Company, and the Louisville and Eastern. The new company will be organized for the purpose of absorbing the Louisville and Eastern and completing that road through Shelbyville, Frankfort, Lawrenceburg, Eminence, and New Castle.

Bond Issue of $350,000.
The new Louisville, Frankfort and Eastern Traction Company will have a bond issue of $350,000. It will be incorporated with a capital stock of $1,000,000 and $250,000 in common stock. This is an increase in the common stock of the Louisville and Eastern, which was $250,000 and $150,000 in the bond issue. Samuel Insull will become the president of the new company at the first meeting of the board of directors. F. M. Fauve, of Indianapolis, the president of the Louisville and Eastern, will be vice president. The plan of the absorption of the Louisville and Eastern has been completed, nothing remaining to be done but the incorporation of the new company and the issuance of the additional stock and bonds. A few days will see the legal close of the deal.

Sharp and Bitter Fight.
The deal was closed only after a sharp and bitter fight among the stockholders of the Louisville and Eastern. The opposition came when it was announced that the Louisville and Eastern was to be taken in to finance the new company. It was through the efforts of the Louisville and Eastern stockholders that the deal was closed.

DEADLOCK IN PLAN FOR ARBITRATION.
TRACTION OFFICIALS SAY VIOLENCE MUST CEASE.

FAIR SERVICE MAINTAINED IN CLEVELAND.

DISORDER IS DECREASING.
Cleveland, May 18.—Trivial rioting, a deadlock in arbitration proposals, car troubles and the refusal of the traction authorities to accept anything until disorder and violence ceased, the conduct of the strike of the Municipal Street Railway Company's lines. The company succeeded in opening the lines to traffic, but the strike impaired service, considering the difficulties. While no special effort was made to avoid the strike, yet, in the strike proper, cars were run on an average schedule of nine minutes. This is a marked improvement.

There was a marked decrease in the severity of the violence reported. In several instances car windows were broken, and in one instance a car was set on fire. The strike was a marked improvement.

THE ENDOWMENT ARMY OFFICER ASSIGNED TO AN ABANDONED POST

Increased By $200,000 At Baptist Convention.

SEMINARY HERE WILL HAVE $1,200,000 TO WORK ON.

MUCH GOOD TO BE DONE WITH MORE MONEY.

WILL BE RAISED IN A YEAR.

With the return of Dr. E. Y. Mullins, president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, to Louisville yesterday from the Southern Baptist convention at Hot Springs, it was learned that the endowment fund of the seminary had been increased from $1,000,000 to $1,200,000. It was the belief of the board of trustees that the fund should be increased another $200,000 in order to carry on the work of the seminary, which will include the purchase of a large tract of land on the site of the old seminary building, the securing of several thousand dollars for the purchase of a building of a chapel to be used on special occasions when meetings of the seminary are held in Louisville. The proposed chapel will be erected at Fifth street and Broadway, on the site adjacent to the Norton Hall, and which was purchased by the board of trustees of the seminary several years ago.

Convention Votes Unanimously.

The decision to ask for the additional $200,000 to bring the endowment fund up to $1,200,000 was reached at a meeting of the board of trustees of the seminary, held at Thursday morning at Hot Springs, just before the first session of the convention. When the matter was placed before the convention as a whole it carried by practically a unanimous vote. It was decided that Kentucky should raise $75,000 of the amount and Georgia, a like sum, and the remainder was divided between the other States which are members of the association.

During the convention in Louisville next year the seminary will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary and golden jubilee, and already plans have been made by Dr. Mullins and other members of the faculty to have a gathering of the alumni. A banquet will be given to the graduates of the seminary, numbering between 2,000 and 3,000, or to as many of them as can arrange to be present at that time.

Numerous Pleading Features.

One of the most pleasing features of the convention to Dr. Mullins and other members of the faculty and trustees of the seminary was the election of Joshua Levering, of Baltimore, Md., to the presidency of the convention. Levering is also the president of the board of trustees of the seminary, and was largely the good work being accomplished by him and his coworkers on the board that resulted in the use of the money choice of the convention for its active fund.

The present standing of the seminary, much of which is due to work accomplished in the past nine years by Dr. Mullins, was also one of the pleasing features to the delegates in attendance at the convention and which resulted in the decision in the endowment asked for. Dr. Mullins has raised more than a quarter of a million dollars for the seminary since he assumed active charge nine years ago.

Other members of the faculty who attended the convention with Dr. Mullins and worked faithfully for the cause were Dr. John E. Sampson and Prof. J. H. LeMay. The report made by Dr. Mullins at the convention was a most inspiring one, regarding his accomplishment at the convention was joyously received by the faculty and students, and the cause of the seminary was tendered their honorable position.

WHISKY RULINGS

MADE KNOWN OFFICIALLY TO LOUISVILLE DEALERS.

Increased Demand and Stiffening of Prices Expected When They Become Effective.

All the wholesale liquor dealers and retailers in Louisville are being notified by Collector Craft of the recent ruling of the commissioner, as to the marking of distilled spirits. The rulings are those which appeared in a special telegram to the Courier-Journal from Washington a week or more ago.

These rulings become effective on July 1 and are under the name of "red-light" and require packages containing liquors to be marked with a "red-light" in the price of the liquor. The ruling is expected to increase the demand for the liquor, and the price of the liquor is expected to increase.

MUCH-RESPECTED SCHOOL TEACHER DEAD.

Miss M. Ella Johnson Passes Away After An Illness of a Year.

Miss M. Ella Johnson, who has been teaching in the public schools for many years, died at St. Anthony's Hospital at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. At the time of her death Miss Johnson was in her sixty-fifth year, and for over a year she had been suffering from a long illness. She was a devoted mother and a highly respected teacher.

CHILDREN ASK POLICE TO HUNT FOR MISSING MOTHER.

Dora and Frances Schell, the two young daughters of William Schell, who live at the City Stables, Eighth and St. Catharine streets, telephoned to the police yesterday afternoon the disappearance of their mother, Mrs. Dora Schell. The two children said that their mother had left home early in the morning and had not returned.

She was last seen at the City Stables, and the children said that they had not seen her since.

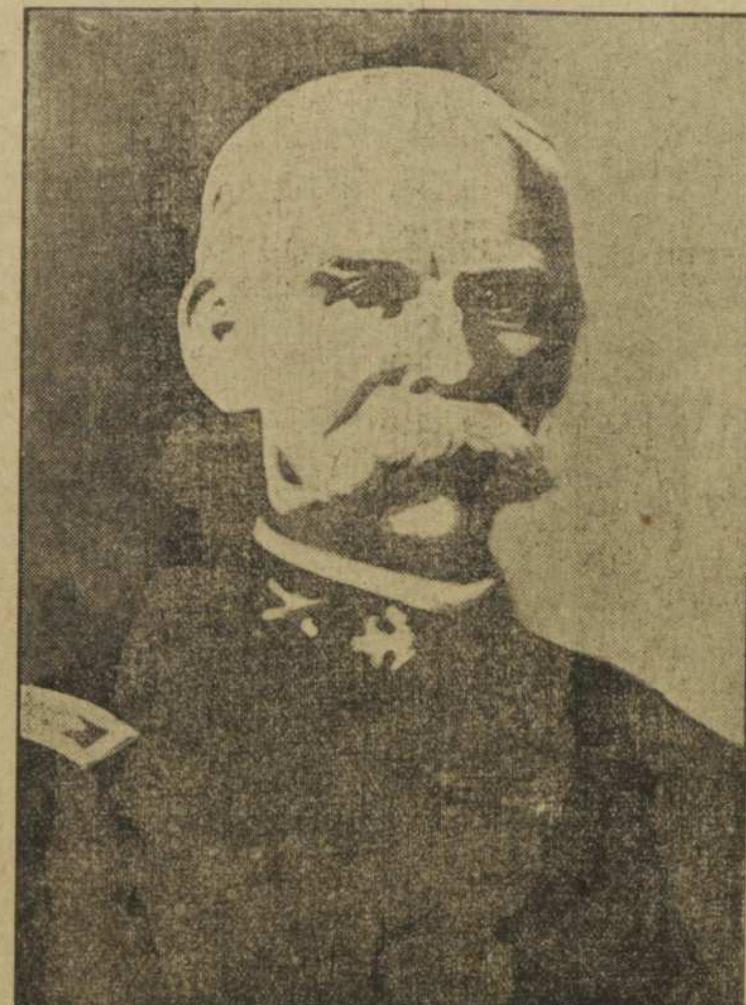

The police are now searching for her, and the children are asking the police to hunt for her.

She is about 35 years of age, and is of medium height, with dark hair and eyes.

She is wearing a dark dress, and is carrying a black bag.

She is known to the children as "Mother," and they are very fond of her.

They are very anxious to see her, and they are asking the police to help them find her.

EIGHT SLEUTHS

Hereafter Will Walk Beats As Patrolmen.

DETECTIVES REDUCED TO THE RANKS IN SHAKE-UP.

CHALK, OFTEN WITH SPEED AND DEMARSH, DOWNED.

MANY GIVEN TRANSFERS.

Eight detectives, five from the central office and three from outlying districts, were yesterday reduced to the rank of patrolmen. They are W. G. Harding, George Dinning, Edward Ecker, W. S. Kimble, Thomas Black, Theodore Ludwig, L. L. Ludwig, and Chief of Police, who that reduction had no connection whatever with the recent discharge of Speed and who are simply lacking in those subtle qualities that go to make up a successful detective.

They may make good patrolmen, he said, they have proved themselves as such in the past.

Julius Luschinger and John Younger, patrolmen, were made district detectives, and Frank Monfort and Boone Jamison, also patrolmen, were promoted to the rank of corporals.

FORM PLAYERS HAVE GOWN DAY AT CHURCHILL DOWNS

Four Favorites Reward Their Backers in the Mud and Talent Cleans Up Handsomely.

HORSES GO DOWN IN THE STEEPLECHASE EVENT.

Four Fall At Last Jump, But the Riders Escape Injury.

COAL BLACK LADY A WINNER.

DAINTY DAME RUNS A REMARKABLE RACE AT SIX FURLONGS IN THE GOING.

E. M. FRY HAS EASY VICTORY.

SELECTIONS FOR TO-DAY.

First Race—Malcolm, Miss Crittenden, Wheat Bread.
Second Race—Snake Mary, Pirate Diana, Mazoni.
Third Race—Terah, St. Harlo, Keep Moving.
Fourth Race—Albert M., Dr. Lee, Huffman.
Fifth Race—Gardenside, E. T. Ship, Mendella.
Sixth Race—Warner, Griswell, Hostile Hyphen, Margaret Randolph.
Two Best Bets—Terah, Gardenside.

Despite threatening weather and a muddy track some splendid sport was witnessed at Churchill Downs yesterday afternoon by a crowd that was surprisingly large. The players of form had a splendid day—the best they have experienced during the meeting, because four heavily-played favorites were returned winners, and in the fifth race, Mrs. Sewall, who annexed the victory, was well supported even though she was third choice in the speculation.

The feature event of the afternoon was the steeplechase handicap over the short course. This race was won by Coal Black Lady, one of the rank outsiders. The black mare got off in front and was never headed, winning in a gallop. An accident, however, occurred as the contestants were going over the last jump, and but for this Coal Black Lady might have had considerable trouble in annexing the victory. Exact fell in taking the last obstacle and three other horses were injured. The race had been heavily played and they were just beginning to make their run when Exact went down. It was a bad one, as Exact, as well as the other horses, were seriously injured. Jockey Morris, who had the mount on Exact, fell from the saddle and declared he had "not even got wet."

Outside of the steeplechase race the performance of Dainty Dame was the most noteworthy. Over a track that was deep in mud the Handspring filly ran three-quarters of a mile in 1:14 3/4. This is undoubtedly the best time ever made around this section of the track. It was a muddy track, and stamps the young Ferguson mare as a high-class performer. She ran as fast in the mud as most horses can run on a good track.

Favorites Takes Another.

Despite the bad start occasioned by the fractiousness of youngsters who lined up for the first race it resulted in a good contest, and, according to the wise calculation, the right horse won. So it was the choice of the crowd that was really supported, and although the Schreiber colt had much the best of a poor start he had to be hard ridden to get away. He was off in front and well in motion before the others got started, but he hung slightly in the last quarter and allowed his rivals to take the lead. At the top of the stretch, however, he did a brisk drive that lasted through the last sixteenth and he was in front by a wide margin. He was off in front and well in motion before the others got started, but he hung slightly in the last quarter and allowed his rivals to take the lead. At the top of the stretch, however, he did a brisk drive that lasted through the last sixteenth and he was in front by a wide margin.

The change in track conditions caused numerous scratches in the second race that reduced the original field of twelve to six starters. Of the six that went to the post Dainty Dame was regarded as much the best, being heavily played in the combination pools. The running of the race proved that the filly had not been overrated.

The start was anything but good after eight minutes had been consumed at the post, and Al Shaw got the best of it, but he was off in front and well in motion before the others got started, but he hung slightly in the last quarter and allowed his rivals to take the lead. At the top of the stretch, however, he did a brisk drive that lasted through the last sixteenth and he was in front by a wide margin.

John J. Ward, owner of Dainty Dame, waited in second place at the start, where he let out a wrap and passed the filly, drawing away in the last quarter, but he was off in front and well in motion before the others got started, but he hung slightly in the last quarter and allowed his rivals to take the lead. At the top of the stretch, however, he did a brisk drive that lasted through the last sixteenth and he was in front by a wide margin.

At the top of the stretch, however, he did a brisk drive that lasted through the last sixteenth and he was in front by a wide margin.

John J. Ward, owner of Dainty Dame, waited in second place at the start, where he let out a wrap and passed the filly, drawing away in the last quarter, but he was off in front and well in motion before the others got started, but he hung slightly in the last quarter and allowed his rivals to take the lead. At the top of the stretch, however, he did a brisk drive that lasted through the last sixteenth and he was in front by a wide margin.
